JAMMU, AUG 14

Govt Degree College Majalta under one-week long celebrations of 75th year of Azadi Ka Amrut Mahotsav India's independence which started from 9th August 2021 to 15 August 2021. Today on 14 August 2021 the college organized a story-telling competition in which various students of the college participated, the theme of this competition was life of Indian Freedom Fighters. The competition was organized in two languages Hindi and English. Story-telling is an art which gives wings to the imagination. The participants narrated the life stories of freedom fighters like Ramprasad Bismil, SubhashChander Bose, Shaheed Bhagat Singh, Lal Bahadur Shastri, Rani Lakshmi Bai, Rani Chennamma. The participants also used images of freedom fighters as props. The jury judged the participants on the basis of language skill, facial expression and voice modulation. In the competition every story culminated with a moral lesson in it which inspired the listeners of the programme to a great extent. The honorable Principal on his occasion said that the overwhelming response of the participants shows that the art of age-old Indian tradition of story-telling is still alive and relevant as one of the methods to inspire and motivate the young generation. One can learn from the life struggles and successes of freedom fighters of India's independence.
